

PRESS CONFERENCE ON BARN PRESERVATION SCHEDULED

March 10, 2006 - On March 13th, as preservation advocates from around the country meet to learn more about current issues facing national preservation policy as a part of the Advocacy Day program, the National Barn Alliance will be hosting a national press conference on Capitol Hill to publicize the need for funding the Historic Barn Preservation Act. The Act was authorized for $25 million and has yet to receive an appropriation. The Act's authorization expires this year.
