

PRESERVATION MARYLAND AND THE TILGHMAN FAMILY INVITE YOU TO

Celebrate Our Eastern Shore Heritage
Recognizing National Register Properties and Their Stewards

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2011 • 4:00 P.M. TO 7:00 P.M. • WYE HOUSE FARM • EASTON

Savor the tastes and sounds of the Eastern Shore

- Oysters and Barbecue
- Smith Island Cake
- Eastern Shore Wine and Beer
- Music by The Shoremen

Tour Wye House Farm

- Eastern Shore's only individual property designated a National Historic Landmark
- One of Maryland's greatest collections of 18th, 19th, 20th century buildings
- Architectural experts and docents to interpret the house and grounds

Bid on the Best of the Counties

- Goose hunting on the Sassafras River, works by artists Nancy Hammond and John Barber, overnight accommodations and meals in historic inns and homes, custom-built Tanglewood conservatory, Smith Island cruise and cake baking lesson, genealogical research, historic venue for special occasion

See Eastern Shore properties on the National Register

- Unique photo exhibit of more than 300 of the shore's architectural treasures
- Enter a contest to identify them

Add to your collection of Eastern Shore titles

- Books on the Eastern Shore's historic and natural resources on sale
- Authors present for signing

Proceeds support Preservation Maryland's Eastern Shore Field Office.

- Tickets are $80 each, $50 of which is tax-deductible.
- For more information, visit www.preservationmaryland.org or call Louise Hayman at 410-685-2886 x307